

e-Diss@UNI BERN

Declaration of Consent

Declaration of consent regarding the publication of my dissertation on the server of the University Library of Bern

24.01.2011/rbu

Author .....
Address .....
Postcode/city .....
E-mail address .....
Phone .....

Title of publication .....
Date of graduation .....

The University Library of Bern (UB) offers the possibility to make scientific publications available to the public in an electronic format (full text).

Author's Declaration:

- I agree to the electronic publication of my dissertation on the web server of the UB.
- I agree that the UB may pass the electronic version of my dissertation to the Swiss National Library. I grant permission to the Swiss National Library to save the electronic dissertation and to make it publicly accessible in its catalogue and also via internet portals of its choice.
- Rights of third parties do not preclude the publication of the dissertation.
- Claims for compensation are waived by all parties.
- Both the UB and the Swiss National Library reserve the right to convert the file into other data formats.
- The file handed over to the UB is identical in its contents with the printed copies deposited with the University of Bern (if present).

Disclosures by the University Library of Bern:

- The document may be made accessible via internet by the UB.
- The document may be listed in the library's catalogue. The file's contents will not be altered, but it may be converted into a new format if necessary.
- Electronic dissertations accepted by the University of Bern cannot be removed from library stock.
- The electronic dissertation will be saved for an indefinite period of time.
- The author retains ownership of the copyright, except as stated above.

Please tick as desired:

- The above-mentioned dissertation may be put online immediately.
- The above-mentioned dissertation may be put online as of _____.
(one year after submission of the deposit copies at the least)

Bern,

Author's signature: